YORKSHIRE RAMBLERS' CLUB ANNUAL DINNER.

THE Annual Dinner of the Yorkshire Ramblers' Club took place at Leeds on the 18th January, 1908. Mr. Calvert, the President, occupied the chair, and about 40 members attended. Amongst other guests there were Mr. Woolley, the President of the Alpine Club; Mr. Thomson, the President of the Scottish Mountaineering Club, and Mr. Robertson, the President of the Climbers' Club. An innovation was introduced by the toast of the Club being proposed by one of the guests, Mr. Thomson, instead of from the Chair. The President proposed "The Alpine and Kindred Clubs," which was replied to by Mr. Woolley and Mr. Robertson. The menu card was adorned with a most unique and admirable photograph of the interior of Gaping Ghyll, and which forms a delightful souvenir of a delightful evening.
